Numb. 4067

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday October 30. to Thursday November 2. 1704.

St. James's, October 31. The following Addreſs from the Juſtices of the Peace and Grand Jury of the County of Somerſet, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Coward Eſq; Serjeant at Law, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament of the City of Wells, in the ſaid County.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Deputy Lieutenants, Grand Jury and other Gentlemen, of the County of Somerſet, met at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace of the ſaid County, held at Taunton, on Tueſday the 3d of October, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, and of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, of that Corporation.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

TO permit us, Your Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, after our Thanks to God, to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the late glorious Succeſſes that have attended Your Arms both by Sea and Land; ſuch as our lateſt Poſterity will have juſt Reaſon to bleſs Your Majeſty's moſt Glorious Memory for.

Let us crave Leave thus far to ſay, That (next under Heaven) it is chiefly owing to Your own wiſe Counſel, and the prudent Choice of ſuch a General and Admiral, who not only convinced their Enemies of their Courage and Conduct, but all the unbiaſſed part of Your People, of their preferring the Liberties of Europe, the Safety of Your Realms, the Proteſtant Intereſt, and the Honour of the Nation, before all Self-Intereſt and By-Ends whatſoever.

And we have juſt Reaſon to hope, from ſuch Councils and ſuch Commanders, the Crown of England will Triumph, the Church by Law Eſtabliſhed will flouriſh in Peace, the Treaſure of the Nation will be rightly applied; and thereby Your Majeſty become the Glory as well as Protector of Europe, the Delight of that Church, and the Darling of Your People; whilſt we in Duty bound ſhall ever pray.

The following Addreſs from the Town of Newark upon Trent was preſented by the Honourable James Saunderſon Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Aldermen, and alſo of the Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's Borough of Newark upon Trent in the County of Nottingham.

SInce Your Majeſty has been pleaſed to permit our Fellow Subjects the Honour of Congratulating Your Glorious Succeſſes by Sea and Land, we humbly beg Leave to expreſs our unfeigned Joy on this Occaſion: And tho' ſuch Signal Victories are the Gift of Heaven, as a Reward to Your unparallel'd Virtues, yet we hope it may be thought no Preſumption in us to attribute the Choice of ſo great a General, and ſo great an Admiral, to Your own diſcerning Wiſdom; and to believe, the Courage of Your Forces were no leſs animated by an undaunted Zeal for Your Majeſty's Service, than by the brave Example and Conduct of their Commanders.

We heartily pray Almighty God to preſerve Your moſt Sacred Perſon in an uninterrupted Courſe of Proſperity; That Your Majeſty may continue long to protect the Liberties of Europe, You have in ſo generous a manner already reſcued; that Your own Subjects may live in that entire Unanimity Your Majeſty has been pleaſed ſo earneſtly to recommend; and make all other ſuitable Returns of Duty and Affection for the very great Bleſſings we enjoy (and may we long enjoy them) under the beſt of Sovereigns.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Reverend Dr. Wake, Dean of Exeter, introduced by the moſt Honourable the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and others of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

AFter our due Obedience to Your Majeſty's Commands, in paying the juſt Tribute of our Thanks to Almighty God, for the moſt Glorious Victory obtain'd by Your Majeſty's Forces in Germany, under his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, over the French and Bavarians, which has preſerv'd the almoſt expiring Liberties of Europe, and giv'n new Life and Hopes to the Proteſtants abroad; we humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the ſame.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty likewiſe to accept of our farther Congratulations for the great and happy Succeſſes of Your Majeſty's Fleet under the Command of Sir George Rooke.

Your Majeſty's great Piety and Goodneſs, and Bounty to Your People, had giv'n us early Hopes of no leſs a Bleſſing on the Conſummate Wiſdom of Your Councils, and the Maſterly Conduct of Your General.

Be pleas'd to permit us to add to our Joy for an Event of that vaſt Importance, the utmoſt Aſſurances of an unmoveable Duty and Affection to Your Majeſty's Service: We are ſure to make good the one by our beſt Endeavours in our ſeveral Stations, as we are to Pray continually for ſuch a frequent Addition to the other, as may render Your Majeſty's Government no leſs a Terrour to Your Enemies, than it is the Delight and Support of all Your Faithful Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Doncaſter was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Kay Bar. one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of York, introduced by the moſt Honourable the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's Ancient Borough and Soak of Doncaſter, in the Weſt-Riding of the County of York; and of the Gentlemen inhabiting within the ſaid Borough and Soak.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do moſt humbly Congratulate Your Majeſty in the wonderful Victory obtained by Your Armies, and thoſe of Your Allies, againſt the Common Enemy, under the Heroick and Prudent Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, which has ſignally Revived the Ancient Honour and Glory of the Engliſh Nation. The late Succeſs at Sea under Sir George Rooke deſerves likewiſe a grateful Acknowledgement.

Theſe Bleſſings (under God) we owe to Your Majeſty's wiſe Government, and do moſt Powerfully engage us to make our fervent Prayers to the Almighty for Your Majeſty's long and proſperous Reign over us, and to continue Succeſs to Your Armies, whereby ſuch a Peace may be obtained to all Europe, as it may not be in the Power of any Potentate to Violate.

The following Addreſs from the Juſtices of the Peace and Grand Jury of the County of Stafford, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Honourable Henry Paget Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, other Gentlemen, and the Grand Jury, at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the County of Stafford, the 3d day of October, 1704.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

IT is not to be expreſſed with how much Satisfaction Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful Subjects daily crowd into Your Royal Preſence, to Congratulate the Wonderful Succeſs wherewith God has been pleaſed to bleſs Your Majeſty's Arms, and thoſe of Your Allies, this Summer, both at Land and Sea. We ought not to forget the many Signal Occaſions of Rejoycing we have had in other Reigns; but it muſt be confeſſed, that the Actions of this Year have been ſo very much to the Reputation of England, as the like hath not been in our Days; and therefore cannot but be attended with an unuſual degree of Joy.

The ancient Engliſh Proweſs muſt no longer be ſaid to be in its Declention, or rendred Ineffectual, if not Uſeleſs, by the new French Arts of Warring without Fighting. By what the Renowned Duke of Marlborough hath done at Land, and Your Admirals at Sea, it appears that Engliſh Hearts are ſtill the ſame; and when animated by the Courage and Conduct of their Generals, and a Zeal for the Service of their Sovereign, a French Force, tho' ſuperior in Number, muſt expect to be driven before them, and owe their Lives to the Mercy of their Conquerors.

Theſe

These glorious Successes not only retrieve, but enlarge the Honour of the English Nation, and will make the Annals of Your Majesty's most Glorious Reign be read with Pleasure and Admiration by the Generations to come; and the whole must be ascribed (next under God) to Your Majesty, whose Wisdom, Piety, and steddy Adherence to the Establish'd Church, (most remarkably shewn by Your late great Charity and Munificence to those who serve at the Altar) have brought down these Blessings upon Your People, and will Perpetuate Your Memory here, and Crown You with Glory hereafter.

The following Address from the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Litchfield, was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry, and the Reverend Dr. William Binkes, Dean of Litchfield.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Litchfield, with the Archdeacons and Clergy of that Diocese.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE have already, in the most Solemn Manner, and with Hearts full of Joy, appear'd before God, to render to Him the Praise and Glory of that Success wherewith He has lately Bless'd Your Majesty's Arms; and Duty, and Gratitude, and zealous Inclinations to express 'em, bring us next unto Your Royal Presence. The Lord of Hosts gives Victory; through him we Subdue our Enemies, and Tread them down that Rise up against us: But You, Madam, are his Minister and Vicegerent; 'tis Your Wisdom in the Conduct of Your Counsels, the Management of Your Revenue, and the Choice of Your Generals, whereby the Will of Providence is brought to pass; and therefore to Your Majesty, (under God) we acknowledge our selves to owe (all that is most Dear to us) the Security of our Religious and Political Interests.

The Exorbitant Power of the French King, and the frightful Advances of it, never were repuls'd with so much Infamy and Loss, as by Your Majesty's and the Confederate Forces, under Your Undaunted and Experienc'd Captain the Duke of Marlborough. You have driven the Enemy out of the Heart of Germany, and freed the Empire from its Fears; You have forc'd the French Fleet to give way upon the Spanish Coast, and thereby made the Settlement of that Kingdom more Feasible, upon which the Fate of Europe does in so great a measure depend; and Providence seems to have rais'd Your Majesty to the Throne of these Kingdoms, to Curb the French, as Your Glorious Predecessor Queen Elizabeth did the Spanish Insolence.

May it be God's good Pleasure to accomplish this Work, which he has thus prosperously and signally begun in You; may all Your People with an unfeigned Obedience contribute their utmost to carry on Your Princely Designs for the Publick Good: And more particularly do the Clergy stand oblig'd, by Your Majesty's unparalell'd Bounty and Goodness to them, and to the Establish'd Church, to be upon all Occasions most zealously affected to Your Majesty's Service, and daily to pray, that God would be pleas'd to Bless You with Health and long Life, and all Temporal Felicity, to enjoy the Fruits of Your Labours, and grant that Your Pious, unblemish'd and exemplary Life here, may be Rewarded with a Crown of Immortality hereafter.

The following Address from the Borough of Weymouth and Melcomb-Regis was presented to Her Majesty by George St. Loe Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament of the Borough of Melcomb-Regis.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs, Common-Council, and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Weymouth and Melcomb-Regis.

WE Your Majesty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly crave Leave to Congratulate (with our whole Hearts) the late Glorious Successes of the Victorious Arms of Your Majesty and Allies by Sea and Land; which we attribute to Your Majesty's Singular Care by the Divine Assistance.

We pray God Almighty to continue a Succession of Triumphs to Your Majesty, till You have forced the Grand Disturber of the World to submit to such a Peace as may tend to the Glory of God, the Good of his Church, the Honour of Your Majesty, and the Universal Joy of Europe, as well as of us Your Majesty's most Obedient Subjects.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very Graciously.

The Address from the County of Derby, which was inserted in the last Gazette, was presented to Her Majesty by John Curzon and Thomas Coke Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Houshold.

There was a Mistake by the Printer in the printing the Gazette as to the Address from the County of Hertford. It ought to have been inserted thus, viz. That it was presented by Ralph Freeman and Thomas Halsey Esqs; Representatives in Parliament of the said County; introduced by the Lord Bishop of London.

Lisbon, October 30. The Earl of Galway is come to Abrantes, the head Quarters of our Forces, his Excellency intending to be sometimes there, and sometimes at Estremos, in order to be in a readiness to take the Field upon any Motion of the Enemy. The Dutch Convoy, with a Reinforcement for the Troops of the States General in this Country, is just now coming into this River; and the English Convoy with the Battalion of Guards is hourly expected; the Pacquet-Boat which brought our last Letters from England having left it two days ago off of Oporto.

Turin, October 8. N. S. The last week our Duke detached General Thaun from his Camp at Crescentino, with Orders to join the Baron de Martini, who lay encamped with 3 Battalions and 700 Horse on the Borders of the Astesan; Being joined, they marched with great Diligence to Asti, in order to have surprised that Place, where the Enemy had left only two Battalions, and did accordingly possess themselves of the Town, where they remained about three hours, and took 7 or 8 Officers and 70 Soldiers Prisoners; but the rest of the Garison retired into the Castle, and our Men having no Cannon to batter it, were obliged to march away. His Royal Highness, who had passed the Po to favour this Design, returned to his Camp at Crescentino, which is very strongly intrenched. The Duke de Vendosme is marched towards Verue with all his Forces, except the few he has left in Garison at Ivrea, and in the City of Aousta. Monlieur Belcastel, who commands the Vaudois, marched the 2d Instant to attack the Enemy in their Post at Pral in the Valley of St. Martin: The Enemy had notice of his March; whereupon they drew their Regular Troops out of Lazara, and got together what Forces they could at Pral, where they were well intrenched, and had two Battalions and three Companies of Granadiers: Monlieur de Belcastel had 1000 Vaudois and about 600 regular Troops; his Attack was vigorous; but the Enemy being so well prepared, that he could not make himself Master of that Post, he marched to Lazara, where the Enemy had left some Militia, whom he either killed or took Prisoners. On our side we had 5 Officers and 36 Soldiers killed or taken, and three Officers and 14 Soldiers wounded.

Florence, October 18. Letters from the Imperial Army commanded by the Count de Leiningen of the 7th Instant say, they were advanced to Goione, and expected a Supply of Money, and a Reinforcement of 5000 Foot, which were already on this side of Bolzano. The Duke of Savoy has made Cavalier, one of the Heads of the Malecontents in the Sevennes, who lately came from thence to his Royal Highness's Camp with 70 of his Followers, a Colonel of Foot; and he is raising Men to make up a Battalion.

Venice, Octob. 28. On the 18th Instant the French sent a strong Detachment towards Monte-Chiaro, and the whole Army was ready to follow. The Imperialists under Count Leiningen are still in the Brescian, and daily receive Reinforcements: It is said they are about 14000 strong, and expect to be shortly joined by two or three Regiments more.

Vienna, Octob. 25. Yesterday a Courier arrived from Schemnitz, with an Account, That the Imperial Plenipotentiaries for Treating of an Accommodation with the Malecontents in Hungary, and Monsieur Bruyninx Envoy Extraordinary from the States General, arrived there the 17th; and that on the 20th, Monsieur Bruyninx went to Eisenback, a Place about two Miles off, to make a Visit to Prince Ragotzki. Mr. Stepney arrived at Presbourg the 23d in the Evening, and designed to proceed the next Morning towards Schemnitz. Count Galasch the Emperor's Envoy Extraordinary to Her Majesty of Great Britain set out from hence the 23d past for England.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Treves, October 29. On the 27th Instant the Foot commanded by Lieutenant-General Scholten joined us at St. Wendel. The same day the Duke of Marlborough ordered the Train of Artillery to march, with 4 Battalions of Foot and 3 Squadrons of Horse, towards Hermersken. The 28th his Grace marched with all the Horse from St. Wendel, and having joined the Artillery on their March, came with them to Hermersken, the Foot advancing at the same time as far as Non-Weiler. About 9 at night 3 Deputies from Treves came to wait on his Grace, to acquaint him, That the French Garison, consisting of 300 Men, commanded by the Governor, Colonel de Vandal, were still in the Fort, and that the City was apprehensive of being insulted upon the Enemy's Retreat, and praying his Grace's Protection; who thereupon thought fit to advance this morning before day with all the Horse, and 4 Battalions of Foot, and upon the Approach of our advanced Guard, the Enemy quitted the Fort about 11 a Clock, having first thrown their Ammunition, with a considerable quantity of Corn and Provisions, into the Moselle. Our Dragoons pursued them to the Water side, and took several Prisoners, with some Bagage. As soon as the Enemy were over the Moselle, they burnt the Flying Bridge; and 'tis believed, intended to have done more Mischief if our Troops had not come so suddenly upon them, they having had very little warning of our Approach. The Foot and Artillery encamped this night at Reinsteldt, and are to join us to morrow in the evening at this Place.

From the Camp at Weisslembourg, October 31. We are just now told, That the Imperialists before Landau made themselves Masters of the Counterscarp last night, but with what Damage on either side we do not yet know. Prince Eugene has been these three days past at the Siege, and is not expected here again till to morrow.

Berlin, Nov. 1. Letters from Dantzick of the 29th past give an Account, That King Augustus having decamped from Pultowsk, came the 18th with his Army to Warsaw; That upon the appearing of 2000 Swedes at Prag, a Village over against Warsaw, his Majesty had posted some of his Men in an Island in the middle of the River; and had made all the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for Diſputing the Paſſage, having himſelf viſited all the Poſts, and ſent out Parties to Patrole along the River as far as Sendomir. Letters from Riga of the 23d ſay, a Body of 12000 Muſcovites was advanced near Birſen, and that General Lewenhaupt was drawing together all the Troops he was able in order to oppoſe them.

Franckfort, Nov. 2. On the 31ſt paſt the Imperialiſts before Landau ſprung a Mine they had made under a Place of Arms of the Counterſcarp, which had the deſired Succeſs, and they made a Lodgment in the Covered-way. Their laſt Battery for making a Breach is not yet finiſht.

Hamburgh, Nov. 4. The Dutcheſs Dowager of Holſtein, Siſter to his Royal Highneſs Prince George of Denmark, died the 30th paſt at her Houſe at Kiehl. The Muſcovite Generals, who were Priſoners of War at Stockholm, and were ordered from thence to ſeveral Provinces, where they were to be diſtributed, were in their Paſſage by Sea all caſt away, among whom was the Governor of Novogrod, who was Married to the Czar's Siſter.

Hague, Nov. 7. N. S. We have Advice, That the Elector of Bavaria's late Deſign, for which he had made ſo many Prepararions was to have attacked Monſieur d'Auverquerque, who is ſtill encamped at Boſchloen; but that the Marſhal de Villeroy, after he had in vain urged ſeveral Reaſons to diſſuade him, produced a poſitive Order from the French King not to hazard a general Engagement: The Enemy is ſaid to have had 18 or 20 Battalions more than we, having drained all their Gariſons. The Elector has ſince ſent a Reinforcement of 8 Battalions and 12 Pieces of Cannon towards the Moſelle. They write from Bavaria, That the Towns of Straubingen and Paſſau had been delivered up to the Emperor's Forces upon Articles, with the Conſent of the Electoreſs of Bavaria; and that there was a Ceſſation of Arms between the Imperialiſts and the Bavarians. By our laſt Letters from Poland, the King of Sweden was advanced to the Banks of the Weiſſell near Warſaw; and King Auguſtus was on the other ſide with all the Forces he had been able to get together, being fully reſolved to diſpute with him the Paſſage of that River; ſo that we may expect to hear ſuddenly of an Action between them. There are Advices, That the Enemy's Fleet in the Mediterranean has met with very Stormy Weather, and ſuffered conſiderable Damage; and that the Tonnant, a Ship of 92 Guns, commanded by Monſieur de Coetlogon, was caſt away on the Coaſt of Spain, near Cape de Gatte, but that the Men were ſaved.

Whitehaven, October 25. Yeſterday a Fleet of 27 Sail of light Colliers returned hither from Dublin. This day the Europe of this Port, Matthias Gale Commander, arrived ſafe from Virginia: He left that Country the 29th of Auguſt very healthy.

Falmouth, October 28. The 26th Inſtant was put in here by contrary Wind the Aſia, of and for Middlebourg, homeward-bound from Maderas, and laden with Wines. Yeſterday came in the Sophia of and from London, Richard Rider Maſter, from Liſbon; and two Dutch Capers ſailed a Cruizing. This day came in from Cruizing the Seven Provinces, a Privateer of Fluſhing, and brought in as Prize the Sans Pareil, a Privateer of Breſt, of 16 Guns and 134 Men, which ſhe took the 24th Inſtant near Uſhant, without firing one Gun.

Plimouth, October 29. The 26th Inſtant came in here the John and Mary of and from Guernſey, with Salt, bound hither; and the Neptune of and from Stockholme, bound for St. Ubes. The 27th came in the Delavall Gally of and from London, William Earle Commander, for Scanderoon. Yeſterday came in Sir Stafford Fairborne, with ſeveral of Her Majeſty's Ships under his Command; and the Lion Privateer of Fluſhing, who brought in with him a French Privateer he had taken, called the Hannah and Catherine of Nants, laden with Wine and Brandy, and bound for the Weſt-Indies.

Dartmouth, October 29. This morning the Charles Gally met a ſmall French Privateer, to whom ſhe gave Chaſe, and having taken her, carried her into Torbay.

Yarmouth, October 30. On the 24th ſailed hence the Norwich Gally, Nathaniel Hart Maſter, with Red-Herrings for Rotterdam. Yeſterday ſailed all the light Colliers that were in our Roads for Newcaſtle, under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ship the Queenborough. The ſame day came into our Roads Her Majeſty's Ships the Sorlings and Solebay. The Ruſſia Fleet, mentioned in my laſt, with their Convoys, went through our Roads and on the back of our Sands on the 25th in the evening for the River Thames; as did alſo with them ſeveral laden Colliers. On the 27th came into our Roads the Betty Gally, Nehemiah Wotton Commander, from the River Thames, to lade Herrings for the Streights. On the 28th ſailed hence the Salamander of Fluſhing, laden with Herrings for Leghorne. The ſame evening came hither the Ormond Gally, Nicholas Smith Maſter, from the River Thames, to lade Herrings.

By the Receiver-General for Prizes.

WHereas the Ship St. Lewis of Nants, taken by Her Majeſty's Ship the Kent, hath been Condemned and Sold as Prize, and the Neat Proceed thereof being now adjuſted:

The Receiver-General doth hereby give Notice, That on Thurſday the 9th day of November inſtant, at the Office for Payment of Captors, in the Little Piazza's, Covent-Garden, he will then pay each Captor his juſt Proportion of the ſaid Prize, according to the Directions in Her Majeſty's moſt Gracious Declaration for the Encouragement of Her Ships of War, &c.

By the Principal Commiſſioners for Prizes.

IF any Perſon can give Information relating to the Diſcovery of a Will of Walter Baker Eſq; lately deceaſed, particularly one Edmund . . . . formerly Servant to the ſaid Walter Baker; he is deſired to give Notice to Mr. Lewis, a Goldſmith, at the Golden-Angel in the Strand, and he ſhall be well rewarded.

THeſe are to give Notice, That there being a Decree in the High Court of Chancery, whereby the Equity of Redemption is forecloſed on a certain Mortgage of the Lands hereafter mentioned, late the Eſtate of

These glorious Successes not only retrieve, but enlarge the Honour of the English Nation, and will make the Annals of Your Majesty's most Glorious Reign be read with Pleasure and Admiration by the Generations to come; and the whole must be ascribed (next under God) to Your Majesty, whose Wisdom, Piety, and steddy Adherence to the Establish'd Church, (most remarkably shewn by Your late great Charity and Munificence to those who serve at the Altar) have brought down these Blessings upon Your People, and will perpetuate Your Memory here, and Crown You with Glory hereafter.

The following Address from the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Litchfield, was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry, and the Reverend Dr. William Binkes, Dean of Litchfield.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Litchfield, with the Archdeacons and Clergy of that Diocese.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE have already, in the most Solemn Manner, and with Hearts full of Joy, appear'd before God, to render to Him the Praise and Glory of that Success wherewith He has lately Bless'd Your Majesty's Arms; and Duty, and Gratitude, and zealous Inclinations to express 'em, bring us next unto Your Royal Presence. The Lord of Hosts gives Victory; through him we Subdue our Enemies, and Tread them down that Rise up against us: But You, Madam, are his Minister and Vicegerent; 'tis Your Wisdom in the Conduct of Your Councils, the Management of Your Revenue, and the Choice of Your Generals, whereby the Will of Providence is brought to pass; and therefore to Your Majesty, (under God) we acknowledge our selves to owe (all that is most Dear to us) the Security of our Religious and Political Interests.

The Exorbitant Power of the French King, and the frightful Advances of it, never were repuls'd with so much Infamy and Loss, as by Your Majesty's and the Confederate Forces, under Your Undaunted and Experienc'd Captain the Duke of Marlborough. You have driven the Enemy out of the Heart of Germany, and freed the Empire from its Fears; You have forc'd the French Fleet to give way upon the Spanish Coast, and thereby made the Settlement of that Kingdom more Feasible, upon which the Fate of Europe does in so great a measure depend; and Providence seems to have rais'd Your Majesty to the Throne of these Kingdoms, to Curb the French, as Your Glorious Predecessor Queen Elizabeth did the Spanish Insolence.

May it be God's good Pleasure to accomplish this Work, which he has thus prosperously and signally begun in You; may all Your People with an unfeigned Obedience contribute their utmost to carry on Your Princely Designs for the Publick Good: And more particularly do the Clergy stand oblig'd, by Your Majesty's unparalell'd Bounty and Goodness to them, and to the Establish'd Church, to be upon all Occasions most zealously affected to Your Majesty's Service, and daily to pray, that God would be pleas'd to Bless You with Health and long Life, and all Temporal Felicity, to enjoy the Fruits of Your Labours, and grant that Your Pious, unblemish'd and exemplary Life here, may be Rewarded with a Crown of Immortality hereafter.

The following Address from the Borough of Weymouth and Melcomb-Regis was presented to Her Majesty by George St. Loe Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament of the Borough of Melcomb-Regis.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs, Common-Council, and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Weymouth and Melcomb-Regis.

WE Your Majesty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly crave Leave to Congratulate (with our whole Hearts) the late Glorious Successes of the Victorious Arms of Your Majesty and Allies by Sea and Land; which we attribute to Your Majesty's Singular Care by the Divine Assistance.

We pray God Almighty to continue a Succession of Triumphs to Your Majesty, till You have forced the Grand Disturber of the World to submit to such a Peace as may tend to the Glory of God, the Good of his Church, the Honour of Your Majesty, and the Universal Joy of Europe, as well as of us Your Majesty's most Obedient Subjects.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very Graciously.

The Address from the County of Derby, which was inserted in the last Gazette, was presented to Her Majesty by John Curzon and Thomas Coke Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Houshold.

There was a Mistake by the Printer in the printing the Gazette as to the Address from the County of Hertford. It ought to have been inserted thus, viz. That it was presented by Ralph Freeman and Thomas Halsey Esqs; Representatives in Parliament of the said County; introduced by the Lord Bishop of London.

Lisbon, October 30. The Earl of Galway is come to Abrantes, the head Quarters of our Forces, his Excellency intending to be sometimes there, and sometimes at Estremos, in order to be in a readiness to take the Field upon any Motion of the Enemy. The Dutch Convoy, with a Reinforcement for the Troops of the States General in this Country, is just now coming into this River; and the English Convoy with the Battalion of Guards is hourly expected; the Pacquet-Boat which brought our last Letters from England having left it two days ago off of Oporto.

Turin, October 8. N. S. The last week our Duke detached General Thaun from his Camp at Crescentino, with Orders to join the Baron de Martini, who lay encamped with 3 Battalions and 700 Horse on the Borders of the Astesan; Being joined, they marched with great Diligence to Asti, in order to have surprised that Place, where the Enemy had left only two Battalions, and did accordingly possess themselves of the Town, where they remained about three hours, and took 7 or 8 Officers and 70 Soldiers Prisoners; but the rest of the Garison retired into the Castle, and our Men having no Cannon to batter it, were obliged to march away. His Royal Highness, who had passed the Po to favour this Design, returned to his Camp at Crescentino, which is very strongly intrenched. The Duke de Vendosme is marched towards Verue with all his Forces, except the few he has left in Garison at Ivrea, and in the City of Aousta. Monlieur Belcastel, who commands the Vaudois, marched the 2d Instant to attack the Enemy in their Post at Pral in the Valley of St. Martin: The Enemy had notice of his March; whereupon they drew their Regular Troops out of Lazara, and got together what Forces they could at Pral, where they were well intrenched, and had two Battalions and three Companies of Granadiers: Monlieur de Belcastel had 1000 Vaudois and about 600 regular Troops; his Attack was vigorous; but the Enemy being so well prepared, that he could not make himself Master of that Post, he marched to Lazara, where the Enemy had left some Militia, whom he either killed or took Prisoners. On our side we had 5 Officers and 36 Soldiers killed or taken, and three Officers and 14 Soldiers wounded.

Florence, October 18. Letters from the Imperial Army commanded by the Count de Leiningen of the 7th Instant say, they were advanced to Goione, and expected a Supply of Money, and a Reinforcement of 5000 Foot, which were already on this side of Bolzano. The Duke of Savoy has made Cavalier, one of the Heads of the Maleconrents in the Sevennes, who lately came from thence to his Royal Highness's Camp with 70 of his Followers, a Colonel of Foot; and he is raising Men to make up a Battalion.

Venice, Octob. 28. On the 18th Instant the French sent a strong Detachment towards Monte-Chiaro, and the whole Army was ready to follow. The Imperialists under Count Leiningen are still in the Brescian, and daily receive Reinforcements: It is said they are about 14000 strong, and expect to be shortly joined by two or three Regiments more.

Vienna, Octob. 25. Yesterday a Courier arrived from Schemnitz, with an Account, That the Imperial Plenipotentiaries for Treating of an Accommodation with the Malecontents in Hungary, and Monsieur Bruyninx Envoy Extraordinary from the States General, arrived there the 17th; and that on the 20th, Monsieur Bruyninx went to Eisenback, a Place about two Miles off, to make a Visit to Prince Ragotzki. Mr. Stepney arrived at Presbourg the 23d in the Evening, and designed to proceed the next Morning towards Schemnitz. Count Galasch the Emperor's Envoy Extraordinary to Her Majesty of Great Britain set out from hence the 23d past for England.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Treves, October 29. On the 27th Instant the Foot commanded by Lieutenant-General Scholten joined us at St. Wendel. The same day the Duke of Marlborough ordered the Train of Artillery to march, with 4 Battalions of Foot and 3 Squadrons of Horse, towards Hermersken. The 28th his Grace marched with all the Horse from St. Wendel, and having joined the Artillery on their March, came with them to Hermersken, the Foot advancing at the same time as far as Non-Weiler. About 9 at night 3 Deputies from Treves came to wait on his Grace, to acquaint him, That the French Garison, consisting of 300 Men, commanded by the Governor, Colonel de Vandal, were still in the Fort, and that the City was apprehensive of being insulted upon the Enemy's Retreat, and praying his Grace's Protection; who thereupon thought fit to advance this morning before day with all the Horse, and 4 Battalions of Foot, and upon the Approach of our advanced Guard, the Enemy quitted the Fort about 11 a Clock, having first thrown their Ammunition, with a considerable quantity of Corn and Provisions, into the Moselle. Our Dragoons pursued them to the Water side, and took several Prisoners, with some Bagage. As soon as the Enemy were over the Moselle, they burnt the Flying Bridge; and 'tis believed, intended to have done more Mischief if our Troops had not come so suddenly upon them, they having had very little warning of our Approach. The Foot and Artillery encamped this night at Reinsteldt, and are to join us to morrow in the evening at this Place.

From the Camp at Weisslembourg, October 31. We are just now told, That the Imperialists before Landau made themselves Masters of the Counterscarp last night, but with what Damage on either side we do not yet know. Prince Eugene has been these three days past at the Siege, and is not expected here again till to morrow.

Berlin, Nov. 1. Letters from Dantzick of the 29th past give an Account, That King Augustus having decamped from Pultowsk, came the 18th with his Army to Warsaw; That upon the appearing of 2000 Swedes at Prag, a Village over against Warsaw, his Majesty had posted some of his Men in an Island in the middle of the

the River; and had made all the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for Diſputing the Paſſage, having himſelf viſited all the Poſts, and ſent out Parties to Patrole along the River as far as Sendomir. Letters from Riga of the 23d ſay, a Body of 12000 Muſcovites was advanced near Birſen, and that General Lewenhaupt was drawing together all the Troops he was able in order to oppoſe them.

Francfort, Nov. 2. On the 31ſt paſt the Imperialiſts before Landau ſprung a Mine they had made under a Place of Arms of the Counterſcarp, which had the deſired Succeſs, and they made a Lodgment in the Covered-way. Their laſt Battery for making a Breach is not yet finiſht.

Hamburgh, Nov. 4. The Dutcheſs Dowager of Holſtein, Siſter to his Royal Highneſs Prince George of Denmark, died the 30th paſt at her Houſe at Kiehl. The Muſcovite Generals, who were Priſoners of War at Stockholm, and were ordered from thence to ſeveral Provinces, where they were to be diſtributed, were in their Paſſage by Sea all caſt away, among whom was the Governor of Novogrod, who was Married to the Czar's Siſter.

Hague, Nov. 7. N. S. We have Advice, That the Elector of Bavaria's late Deſign, for which he had made ſo many Prepararions was to have attacked Monſieur d'Auverquerque, who is ſtill encamped at Boſchloen; but that the Marſhal de Villeroy, after he had in vain urged ſeveral Reaſons to diſſuade him, produced a poſitive Order from the French King not to hazard a general Engagement: The Enemy is ſaid to have had 18 or 20 Battalions more than we, having drained all their Gariſons. The Elector has ſince ſent a Reinforcement of 8 Battalions and 12 Pieces of Cannon towards the Moſelle. They write from Bavaria, That the Towns of Straubingen and Paſſau had been delivered up to the Emperor's Forces upon Articles, with the Conſent of the Electoreſs of Bavaria; and that there was a Ceſſation of Arms between the Imperialiſts and the Bavarians. By our laſt Letters from Poland, the King of Sweden was advanced to the Banks of the Weiſſell near Warſaw; and King Auguſtus was on the other ſide with all the Forces he had been able to get together, being fully reſolved to diſpute with him the Paſſage of that River; ſo that we may expect to hear ſuddenly of an Action between them. There are Advices, That the Enemy's Fleet in the Mediterranean has met with very Stormy Weather, and ſuffered conſiderable Damage; and that the Tonnant, a Ship of 92 Guns, commanded by Monſieur de Coetlogon, was caſt away on the Coaſt of Spain, near Cape de Gatte, but that the Men were ſaved.

Whitehaven, October 25. Yeſterday a Fleet of 27 Sail of light Colliers returned hither from Dublin. This day the Europe of this Port, Matthias Gale Commander, arrived ſafe from Virginia: He left that Country the 29th of Auguſt very healthy.

Falmouth, October 28. The 26th Inſtant was put in here by contrary Wind the Aſia, of and for Middlebourg, homeward-bound from Maderas, and laden with Wines. Yeſterday came in the Sophia of and from London, Richard Rider Maſter, from Lisbon; and two Dutch Capers ſailed a Cruizing. This day came in from Cruizing the Seven Provinces, a Privateer of Fluſhing, and brought in as Prize the Sans Pareil, a Privateer of Breſt, of 16 Guns and 134 Men, which ſhe took the 24th Inſtant near Uſhant, without firing one Gun.

Plimouth, October 29. The 26th Inſtant came in here the John and Mary of and from Guernſey, with Salt, bound hither; and the Neptune of and from Stockholme, bound for St. Ubes. The 27th came in the Delavall Gally of and from London, William Earle Commander, for Scanderoon. Yeſterday came in Sir Stafford Fairborne, with ſeveral of Her Majeſty's Ships under his Command; and the Lion Privateer of Fluſhing, who brought in with him a French Privateer he had taken, called the Hannah and Catherine of Nants, laden with Wine and Brandy, and bound for the Weſt-Indies.

Dartmouth, October 29. This morning the Charles Gally met a ſmall French Privateer, to whom ſhe gave Chaſe, and having taken her, carried her into Torbay.

Yarmouth, October 30. On the 24th ſailed hence the Norwich Gally, Nathaniel Hart Maſter, with Red-Herrings for Rotterdam. Yeſterday ſailed all the light Colliers that were in our Roads for Newcaſtle, under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ship the Queenborough. The ſame day came into our Roads Her Majeſty's Ships the Sorlings and Solebay. The Ruſſia Fleet, mentioned in my laſt, with their Convoys, went through our Roads and on the back of our Sands on the 25th in the evening for the River Thames; as did alſo with them ſeveral laden Colliers. On the 27th came into our Roads the Betty Gally, Nehemiah Wotton Commander, from the River Thames, to lade Herrings for the Streights. On the 28th ſailed hence the Salamander of Fluſhing, laden with Herrings for Leghorne. The ſame evening came hither the Ormond Gally, Nicholas Smith Maſter, from the River Thames, to lade Herrings.

By the Receiver-General for Prizes.

Whereas the Ship St. Lewis of Nants, taken by Her Majeſty's Ship the Kent, hath been Condemned and Sold as Prize, and the Neat Proceed thereof being now adjuſted:

The Receiver-General doth hereby give Notice, That on Thurſday the 9th day of November inſtant, at the Office for Payment of Captors, in the Little Piazza's, Covent-Garden, he will then pay each Captor his juſt Proportion of the ſaid Prize, according to the Directions in Her Majeſty's moſt Gracious Declaration for the Encouragement of Her Ships of War, &c.
